they may be to acquire the vain glory of the pepular voice, none ever succeeded to so great an extent as has that world renowned remedy, known as Goe's Cough Balsam. There is scarcely a family in the land but what con sider a supply of this artical as necessary to the household as their fleur or provisions. Experience has taught the people that no other remedy has ever been put before the publec that will cure coughs, colds, croup, sore throat, and in fact all throat and lung complaints, as quickly and as effectually as Coe's Cough Balsam. In the Eastern States where it has been long known and tested, it is considered as the most reliable cough remedy extant, and no one, either rich or poor thinks of being without it. We would auggest to all our readers the necessity of keepdiate use. It costs but 40 cents per bottle,
